Keynote Speaker: Deputy Minister David Lindsay, Ministry of Northern Development, Mines & Forestry

David Lindsay was appointed Deputy Minister, Ministry of Northern Development, Mines and Forestry as of July 27, 2009. Prior to this appointment, David Lindsay had been Deputy Minister of Natural Resources since January 2008. Previously, he was Deputy with the Ministry of Tourism from September 2006 to December 2007. Prior to this, he was President and CEO of the Association of Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology of Ontario (ACAATO), representing the 24 community colleges of Ontario.

David was the founding President and CEO of the Ontario SuperBuild Corporation. From September 1997 to December 1999, he headed the Ontario Jobs and Investment Board as President and CEO. The Jobs and Investment Board played an important role in the government's jobs agenda, holding Premier's Conferences around the province and presenting its final report to the Premier in March 1999, "A Road Map to Prosperity: an Economic Plan for Jobs in the 21st Century".

David is a Fellow of the School of Policy Studies at Queen's University, a Director of the Ireland Park Foundation, a past Director of the Ontario Innovation Trust, the World Wildlife Fund, the Canadian Tourism Commission, the Public Policy Forum and the Empire Club of Canada.

David lives in Toronto with his wife Charmaine. They have two adult children, Timothy and Sarah. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce (1981) from Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario.
