

SO YOU WANT TO BE A CANDIDATE?

A service brought to you by Timmins' business community

Have you ever thought about entering municipal politics?

It's an election year and the Municipal Affairs Committee at the Timmins Chamber of Commerce is planning an information session for:

- Individuals planning to run in the 2010 municipal election
- Individuals thinking about running in the 2010 municipal election
- Individuals wishing to know more about what it takes to run for, and work in, municipal politics

What you can expect to learn:

- Important dates for the 2010 municipal election
- What it takes to run an effective campaign
- What to expect if you're elected
- Hear from past councilors who will share their experiences
